1 READING

a Read the text and underline the correct words to complete the sentences.

- 1 Irene likes / doesn't like her job.
- 2 She wants / doesn't want to be a cleaner for her whole life.
- 3 She works / doesn't work the whole day.

b Complete the sentences about the text. Use the words in the box.

at the end of the day early in the morning in the afternoon in the middle of the day

- 1 Irene starts work early in the morning.
- 2 She finishes work _____.
- 3 She goes to college _____.
- 4 She does her college work _____.

c Read the text again. Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

- 1 Irene thinks that most people want to be a cleaner.
- 2 There are a lot of people and cars in the streets at 6 o'clock in the morning.
- 3 Irene likes to hear the birds.
- 4 She doesn't do very much at work.
- 5 She talks to the nurses in the hospital.
- 6 She wants to be a doctor.
- 7 She studies at a college.
- 8 She doesn't have time for her studies.

d Write a paragraph about one job you want to do and one job you don't want to do. Think about these questions:

- What are the good things about the job you want to do? Why do you like those things?
- What are the bad things about the job you don't want to do? Why don't you like those things?

Irene's story

I'm a cleaner. I love my job. I'm sure you're surprised to hear that. You probably don't know anyone who wants to become a cleaner!

So why do I love my job? Well, first, I start work at 6 o'clock. When I walk to work, the streets are quiet and I can hear the birds sing. You don't usually hear the birds in the middle of the city!

The second thing is, I work in a hospital. It's hard work, but I know that what I do is really useful, and that makes me happy. Also, the nurses are friendly, and I chat with them when I have time.

But I don't want to be a cleaner all my life. I really want to be an engineer. I go to college in the evenings to study.

That's why the third reason is the really important one. I finish work at lunch time! So when everyone else goes back to work after their lunch break, I have time for my studies.

end friendly friends ~~magazine~~ often questions

This is a page from a ¹ magazine. First, it talks about ² _____ and how important they are. Then there is a quiz. It asks ³ _____ about things you do. It wants to see how ⁴ _____ you are. It asks how ⁵ _____ you do different things. At the ⁶ _____, it tells you how friendly you are.

b Now answer the quiz. How friendly does it say you are?

c Write your own quiz with questions about how often people do things. It can be about anything you like – types of food people eat, what they do to keep fit, how they travel to work or school – anything you can think of! Here are some phrases you can use:

How often do you ... ?

Once/twice a week

Once/twice a day

Three/four times a ...

If you're so busy that you often forget about your friends, stop and think for a moment! Friends are very important. If you've got good friends, there is always someone to talk to, someone to laugh with and someone to help you with your problems. Life is more difficult for people who haven't got friends.

Remember that it's not easy to make friends! If you want friends, you need to be friendly. Don't always wait for your friends to call you. Make sure you call them sometimes, too. If someone invites you to their house, invite them to your house next time. If they have problems, try to help them.

We can't choose our families, but we can choose our friends. If you're not friendly, people may not choose you!

So how friendly are you?

Answer our quiz and find out!

HOW OFTEN DO YOU ...

'The only problem is that, after the children see the strawberries, there aren't many left!'

Re: Hello

Hi Stella!

How are you? Are you very busy at the moment? If not, let's have a meal together soon. I want to try the new Korean restaurant in the square. What do you think?

You must go and see Miranda's new flat soon – it's so cool! It's in that really tall building near the station, and the view from her bedroom window is amazing, especially at night. You can see right across the city.

It's not very big, but there's a large mirror on the living-room wall and that makes it look bigger. She has some beautiful furniture and a big, red sofa from her aunt's house. It's so comfortable – perfect for when you want to chat all evening!

The kitchen space is lovely, too. It's very modern. It's great for Miranda, because she's a fantastic cook.

There are two bedrooms, so her sister can stay with her when she wants. Do you know Miranda's sister? She's an actor, and she usually works at the theatre here once or twice a year.

Next time she comes, we can all go out together if you want.

Anyway, I hope you're well. Do write and tell me all your news very soon!

Love,

Ciara

Where I live: I have a room with a British family here. They're very nice. Mr Henderson's a chef and Mrs Henderson's a nurse. They've got two children, Zoe and Mark. Zoe loves playing the piano and Mark likes playing computer games. Their house is near the Underground station, so it only takes about 25 minutes to get to university.

What I do here: My course is very interesting. My favourite class is North American History. After we finish, the teacher often goes to a café with us to talk more about our studies. It's great fun! I want to study more history when I go back to Brazil next year.

Who I know: I have a lot of friends on my course – they're all so friendly. My best friend's Antonia. She's from Guadalajara in Mexico. She's 22 and she loves going to the theatre with me. We'd like to see a Shakespeare play while we're in London, but the tickets are really expensive.

LOST IN THE MOUNTAINS!

- 1 Tom Roberts hated living in the city. He thought it was noisy and crowded, and his flat was so expensive, he spent most of his money on it.
- 2 All week at work he thought about the weekends, when he could get away to the countryside. On Fridays, he packed his tent and some food and water, and caught a bus to the mountains. That was where he felt really happy. He didn't mind camping, even in winter – he just took a very warm sleeping bag!
- 3 One weekend, he went to the mountains as usual. He followed a path into a forest. He enjoyed the silence and the clean, fresh air. He thought about his job and the city where he lived. He decided that he wanted a new job, away from the city. But what job could he do in the countryside? He thought about all of this, and he didn't think about where he was going.
- 4 Then he stopped. He felt cold. It was dark. And he had no idea where he was.
- 5 He tried to walk in a straight line. He was sure he must come to a road soon! Three days later, he was still walking. By now, he was hungry, dirty and afraid. He started to think that he could never get out of the mountains. Then he heard a strange noise. The noise got louder and louder until at last he saw a helicopter in the air above him.
- 6 Tom knew this was his last chance. He took off his red shirt, climbed onto a large rock and waved it. When the helicopter flew closer, he knew he was safe at last.

- 2 ☐ Nick's first camera wasn't very expensive.
- 3 ☐ Nick prefers to print his photos to show people.
- 4 ☐ Nick's grandfather won a prize in the photography competition.
- 5 ☐ Nick wants to become a professional photographer.

Nick, tell us why you started your hobby.

Two years ago, a friend showed me some photos from his holiday in Peru. His photos of Machu Picchu were really amazing, so I decided to start taking photos, too.

So, what did you do next?

I bought a cheap camera and carried it everywhere with me. I took photos of my family, my friends and the countryside near my town.

I joined a photography club and slowly improved. However, I only had an old laptop, and I couldn't see the photos very well or show them to friends easily. I decided to buy a computer with a really big screen. Now everyone can see the photos clearly, and I can make changes to the colours quickly and easily.

Last month, I entered a photography competition, and a photo of my grandfather won first prize. I was so happy! I won £500, so I bought a fantastic new camera.

What would you like to do with your hobby in the future?

I'd really like to be a professional photographer. However, there aren't a lot of jobs for photographers, so at the moment it's only a hobby.

UNIT 8

Reading and listening extension

1 READING

a Read the magazine article. Tick (✓) the best description of what it says.

- 1 ☐ Triathlons are very difficult, and you can only do them if you are very fit.
- 2 ☐ There are triathlons at different levels, so you can find one that is right for you. You can prepare for a triathlon at any level.
- 3 ☐ It is easy to swim, bike or run, but it is difficult to do all three with no rest in between. It is best not to try to do these things together.

b Read the magazine article again and complete the sentences.

- 1 In the first part of the triathlon you have to swim, often in a lake or the sea.
- 2 When you swim in the sea, you can't usually put your _____ down.
- 3 When you practise swimming, lift your _____ a long way out of the water.
- 4 In the second part of the triathlon, you have to _____ a bike.
- 5 It's dangerous to get too _____ to the other bikes.
- 6 When you start to run, you usually feel _____.

c Write an email to a friend who never does any sport. Give him or her some ideas about one or two sports to try and some advice about how to prepare. Include at least one sentence with have to and one with don't have to.

HOW TO PREPARE FOR A TRIATHLON

So, you can swim, you can ride a bike and you go running twice a week. But all three things together ... Are you crazy?

Many people like the idea of a triathlon, but they're worried that it's too difficult for them. If that's you, remember, you don't have to start with the Olympics. There are a lot of triathlons for beginners.

So read our advice and start preparing for your first triathlon. You can do it!

SWIMMING

For many people, it's the first part, swimming, that they're most worried about. It's often in a lake or the sea, so, even if you get tired, you can't put your feet down for a rest. Also, you have to lift your arms up high because the water moves up and down. It's a good idea to practise this, even when you're in the swimming pool.

CYCLING

This is the second part of the triathlon. Riding a bike with a lot of other people can be strange at first, so practise with friends. Remember that, in the race, you have to stay away from the other bikes because it's dangerous to get too close.

RUNNING

The running part is often very hard because you have to do it when you're already tired. When you get off the bike, you may think you can't even stand up! So make sure you practise riding your bike and then running at least once a week.

GOOD LUCK!

To: Owen

From: Rafael

Subject: Re: Invitation

Dear Owen,

Thank you very much for your invitation to visit you in the summer. I asked my parents, and they say they can give me the money for the ticket, so that's great!

I'm writing this on my phone in a café in Canada because we're spending a week here, skiing. It's snowing now, so it seems strange to think about summer! Tell me more about the place you live. Is it a big city? Is there a lot to do there?

Also, what is the weather like in summer? My sister says it's always raining in Wales, but I think she just wants to make me angry!

Write back soon!

Rafael

c A friend from another country is coming to visit you. Write an email describing the place where you live and the clothes your friend needs to bring.

To: Rafael

From: Owen

Subject: Re: Invitation

Dear Rafael,

Thanks for your email. I'm really pleased that your parents said yes!

So, to answer your questions: I live in a very small town. There's a café where I meet my friends, and there's a post office and a chemist. And that's all!

But don't worry, because there's a city quite near, called Swansea. It has a large shopping centre. There's also a cinema, a theatre, a swimming pool and a gym, so bring your trainers! There's lots to do in Swansea, and we can get there on the bus.

It's usually quite hot in summer, and we'll probably go to the beach a lot, so bring some T-shirts and your swimming shorts. You'll also need jeans and a thin jumper for the evenings. You can tell your sister that it doesn't rain all the time, but it does sometimes rain in summer, so it's a good idea to bring a raincoat. Also, we sometimes go out to restaurants in the evenings, so make sure you bring some smart trousers.

I hope you are enjoying your skiing holiday – lucky you!

Bye for now,

Owen

 For me, Interfriends is better than BestiesLink. You can put a lot of pictures on Interfriends and make bigger photo albums. Most of my friends use Interfriends as well, so it's easier to talk to them. We like to plan events and parties in group chats.

Joe K Like | Reply | Share

 BestiesLink is the most famous social media site in my country, so of course it's the best. You can do more things on it, too. It's also a good site because you can use different apps on it. For example, my friends and I use a language learning app and study English together.

Enuff! Like | Reply | Share

 I use Interfriends almost every day. It's quicker to share photos with friends than on BestiesLink, and I love taking pictures.

Helpme2 Like | Reply | Share

- 2 Tip ____ talks about staying healthy.

- h you to feel happier.

c What other things do you think are important for a happy life? Write some more tips. Remember to write:

- what the tip is
- how often someone should do this
- how it will make them feel better.

Get some exercise. Most people feel happier when they're fit. And did you know that going for a walk is better for your brain than playing chess or doing puzzles? A stronger body means a stronger brain, too!

Make plans with a friend! When we're busy, we can sometimes forget about our family and friends. But they're the most important people to us. Spend some time with someone you don't talk to enough at least once a week.

Spend less time on your phone. Check your email once a day – twice if you really must – but not twenty times! And think about how much time you spend on social media – if you're like most people, it's too much.

Do something for other people! We know that people who help others are healthier and happier than those who don't. And remember: people will be friendlier and nicer to you if you're friendly and nice to them! Smile at the bus driver or the salesperson, and watch them smile back at you.

Try something new! Did you ever think of learning a language, trying a new sport or playing the piano? Well, don't just think about it – do it! It's probably easier than you think.

Hi Ariel,

How are you? I hope your family is well.

I wanted to write and tell you about the Flags concert I went to last weekend. It was fantastic! I loved every minute of it. I went with a big group of friends from university. It was really crazy, but a lot of fun! The singer had an amazing voice, and the band played all their songs. The members of the band talked to everyone, too. They were really nice and very friendly. I'd love to see them again.

If you visit me in Poland next year, maybe we can go and see them on their next tour. What do you think?

See you,

Mariusz

Hey Mariusz,

Great to hear from you! My family and I are all well. Thanks for asking. Come and visit us again any time!

So, you enjoyed the Flags concert, did you? I'm surprised. I saw them at the stadium here in Mendoza a few months ago, and I didn't like them at all. I went with my sister for her birthday. (She really likes the singer!) I thought the music was terrible. It was too loud!

And when the band talked to the crowd, it was so boring. I didn't go to a concert to listen to four men talking! Thanks for the invitation, but I don't want to see them again!

When I visit you in Poland, we can see a different band that we both like!

See you,

Ariel

Hi Antonio,

Thanks for your email. It's great that you're going to come to my home town in September. I'm very happy to help you plan your holiday.

You asked me about places to visit in Florence, so here are some ideas. First, you should visit the old bridge. We call it Il Ponte Vecchio. It's in the historic centre of Florence and there are lots of shops on the bridge where you can buy presents. The shops are quite expensive, but it's a beautiful place to begin a tour of Florence. Secondly, you should go to the Accademia Gallery. Here you can see Michelangelo's David. It's one of the most famous statues in the world. Finally, the third place you should go to is the Uffizi Gallery. It's got an amazing collection of Renaissance paintings. It's near a lovely square called the Piazza della Signoria. There are some nice cafés in the square where you can enjoy an excellent cup of Italian coffee.

You also asked me about restaurants. My favourite is Il Santo Bevitore. All the food there is fantastic!

I hope my ideas are useful. Maybe we can meet when you come to Florence!

Best wishes,
Gianni

From: Maggie
To: Sarah
Subject: Hello
Hi Sarah, It's good to hear from you! I thought for a long time about your problem with your sister's birthday. Here's my idea – see what you think of it. I think you should change your plans. You don't need to book a hotel to have a holiday. You just need to pack your sister's bag and find a list of her friends who live abroad. Then you make plans to visit all the people who have time to see you and that's it! You shouldn't ask her if she wants to go. You should just do it! Your sister has probably forgotten that holidays aren't like work trips at all. When she remembers how much fun it is to visit her friends, she will never want to come back home again. Write back soon and tell me what you think! Maggie

- ALEX Hi, Dan!
 DAN Hi! It's great to see you, Alex. How's school this year?
 A Not good. It's really hard work! We have important exams at the end of term. I have so much homework every day, and my dad still wants me to help in his shop. He doesn't understand how important it is to get good marks.
 D You're lucky! My dad only wants me to study! He wants me to be a pilot like him.
 A And do you want to be a pilot?
 D No! I know it's not possible because I'm so bad at maths. I always fail my maths exams, and you have to pass them to be a pilot.
 A What do you want to do?
 D I want to be a photographer. I want to take photos of famous people and travel all over the world.
 A What does your dad think about that?
 D He thinks it's a stupid idea. He won't pay for my studies if I do that, only if I study to become a pilot.
 A Well, pilots travel all over the world, too.
 D That's just what my dad says!

 ADAM No, I haven't got anything like that. Not even a tablet.

- L But they're so useful! How do you get the latest news? And what about music? My smart speaker sounds amazing. I use it all the time.
- A Well, I've got a laptop, so I read the news on that. But I've only got it because I need it for my studies.

MARIA My aunt and uncle have got ten children. So that's ten cousins, and they're all girls.

JAMES Ten? That's amazing! How old are they?

M Well, that's a good question! Mollie's two. She's the baby of the family. And Tara is 25, and has two children of her own. In fact, her daughter Lexie is three now and Mollie is two!

J So ... Lexie has an aunt who's younger than her?

M That's right. It's strange, isn't it?

J Why did your aunt and uncle have so many children?

M They just love kids! They say they decided to have three, but when they had three, they wanted another ... and another ... and another! They bought a really big house, and had more and more children!

J And are you friends with them all?

M Yes, especially the ones that are around the same age as me. When I was a kid, I spent a lot of time with them. We lived near them, so I saw them a lot and they often came to our house. We all played football together, and we often took picnics and went off into the countryside. We had a lot of fun.

J It must be a lot of work for your aunt and uncle.

M It is. But my grandparents help them and my cousins do a lot of jobs in the house – much more than I do!

J So how many brothers and sisters do you have?

M None! My aunt and uncle already had four children when I was born, and my dad – who is my aunt's brother – says he looked at them and decided that one child was enough for him. I think my grandparents were pleased about that!

MIA Hi, Bella. How was your weekend?

BELLA Oh, hello, Mia. It was really good, thanks. On Saturday night I went out to a restaurant with Luca.

M Really? Where?

B We went to the new Vietnamese restaurant in the city centre. It was really good.

M But isn't it far from your flat?

B Yes, it is, so we went there by bus. And we went home by taxi.

M Lucky you! Do you want to go for a walk?

B No, I'm sorry, I can't. I need to go shopping. We haven't got anything for dinner.

M OK, never mind. See you soon!

LARA What did you do in the summer holidays last year?

RICK I went to France. I took my bike over on the ferry from England.

L That's funny – I went to France, too! But I caught an aeroplane from London to Nice.

R I hate travelling in aeroplanes because I'm so tall. There's never enough space for my legs, so it's always really uncomfortable.

L Oh, I went first class, so it wasn't a problem. Where did you go on your bike?

R I took a train to the Loire valley, and after that I cycled everywhere.

L That sounds like hard work!

R Not to me – I love riding my bike through the countryside. You see so much that way. What about you? What's Nice like?

L Oh, it's lovely, with the beach in front and the hills behind. And I stayed in a fantastic hotel. It was an old castle, and the rooms were beautiful and so comfortable!

R I didn't stay in hotels. I don't have enough money. I used a website where you can stay in people's homes. It's a cheap way to travel, and you meet lots of interesting people.

L It sounds horrible. I hate staying with people I don't know. And I don't think it's very safe.

R I didn't have any problems. I love meeting people, and I learned so much about France. I often ate dinner with them, too, so I tried lots of food I don't have at home. That was really interesting.

L I like to choose what I eat. There are so many fantastic restaurants in Nice. I was there for three weeks, so I went to most of them!

R Wasn't that very expensive?

L Oh, probably. I didn't really think about it. I just used my credit card. My parents pay the bill.

R Wow! Do they pay for everything?

L Yes, they do, which is lucky, because I love shopping. And there are lots of great shops in Nice. In fact, I love it so much that on my last day I went shopping and forgot about the time. I missed my plane!

R Oh, dear! At least that's one problem I'm sure I'll never have!

ROSA Hi, Emilia.

EMILIA Hi, Rosa. Are you OK? You don't look well.

R No, my back hurts. I'm sorry, but I can't play badminton with you today.

E That's OK. What happened?

R I was ice skating with my sister, and I fell flat on my back. The pain was terrible! I couldn't walk at all for a few days.

E Oh, I'm so sorry to hear that!

R Can you play badminton with someone else today?

E Yes, no problem. I'll ask Lana. I don't have to be at my next lecture until two. Would you like to go for a coffee?

R Yes, that would be great.

R I'm a bit worried about my back. My dad has a bad back, and he has a lot of problems with it. I don't want to be like that.

E Well, my mum has the same problem. She does yoga now, and she says that it really helps.

R Really? That's great, but yoga seems so difficult. And I would feel nervous doing yoga in front of strangers.

E There are a lot of different levels of yoga classes. My mum was in a beginner's class when she first started. She told me that everyone is really friendly, and the yoga teachers are always very helpful. But you don't have to go to a class. There are a lot of good yoga classes online.

R That's a great idea, Emilia. Would you like to try an online yoga class with me?

E Yeah, sure! I need to do something like that. I can't even touch my toes. Can you?

R Well, I could before my skating accident. The doctor says I should be careful, so maybe I should go to a class where a teacher can help me in person, and not online.

E OK. Do you want to go to a class tomorrow evening?

R I can't tomorrow. I have a piano lesson, but what about Thursday evening?

- B No, I don't think so. I think they're just talking about the drinks. Yes, they're getting more glasses from the kitchen.
- G But that jumper's terrible! Especially for a party. Can't he see how lovely Mum looks in her beautiful dress and her jewellery? I love that gold necklace she's wearing.

- GRANDMOTHER Hello, Andrew. I came a bit early so I could help you and Sarah with the food.
- A That's very kind. Sarah's in the kitchen, making sandwiches. I'm sure she'd love you to help.

A Yes, of course I am. It's my favourite, and it's a special party tonight.

B OK, now I understand. He did it to please Grandma.

GI Yes, but he still looks stupid.

Hello! You are listening to Side Salad. Today, I want to talk about growing old. There are now more Americans over 100 years old. In 2019, there were about 80,000 people over 100. And in 2014, there were 72,197 Americans 100 years old or older. Just because Americans are living longer now, does it mean they are healthy?

In Loma Linda, California, there is a 'Blue Zone'. Blue Zones are places that have the highest number of people 100 years old or older. The people who live in Loma Linda don't smoke, eat sugar, dance or watch TV. They also eat a lot of fruit, nuts and vegetables. They eat very little meat. The people here are very close to one another. In another Blue Zone located in Costa Rica, people eat mostly beans and corn tortillas. They also work into old age and feel good about life. A third Blue Zone located in Okinawa is the home to the world's oldest women. They also do exercises and eat a lot of vegetables.

So what things do these places share, and why do the people there live to be 100 years old? Scientists think it is because they all do some form of exercise, eat a lot of vegetables and are close to their friends, families and neighbours. In other words, they are happier!

But don't worry. If you don't live in a Blue Zone, there are many other things you can do to live your happiest and best life. First, try to sleep 7 to 8 hours every night for a longer life. Right now, 1 in 3 adults are not getting enough sleep, and this causes many illnesses. Second, drink coffee or tea. Both coffee and tea drinkers are in 20 to 30% less danger of early death. Third, keep a healthy social network. This can help you live up to 50% longer. In fact, having 3 close friends in your social network may lower the danger of early death by 200%. So, go out and meet a friend at your favourite coffee shop. And remember, keep smiling!

MARIANNE So, Lenny, what's the most interesting place you've been to?

LENNY Well, Marianne, I've been to lots of great places, but I think Mexico was probably the most interesting. I loved learning about the history, and I've never seen such beautiful beaches before! Also, the food is fantastic.

- M What's it like? I've never tried Mexican food.
L Lots of meat! Lots of beans. And fantastic fruit.
M Hmm. I don't eat meat, so I'm not sure it would be so good for me.
L So how about you? Where's your favourite place?
M Probably Italy. I've been there a few times, and I always enjoy it. I have a friend in the city of Bologna, which has some of the best restaurants in Italy. I think I've eaten in most of them!
L Do you speak Italian?
M Not much. I learned some at school, but I've forgotten most of it now, unfortunately. I'd like to learn again, because I really love Italian opera. I've been to the opera in Milan several times, and I've seen some of the best singers in the world. Do you like opera?
L No, I don't really like opera or any type of classical music. I prefer dance music and pop music. I really like a band called Arctic Fire.
M Oh, I've heard some of their albums. My brother likes them, too. And I agree with you – they're great. I like all kinds of music – rock music, jazz – anything! In fact, I think there are really only two types of music – good music and bad music!
L You're probably right.
M Have you tried listening to classical music? I think you usually need to hear pieces a few times before you can really understand them. When you know the music, you enjoy it more.
L That's interesting. I'm not sure it's true for pop music. I've bought albums because I liked one song, but when I've listened to them several times, I usually start to like other songs more.
M Well, maybe we can go to a classical concert together one day?
L Sure, if I can take you to see Arctic Fire, too.

SOPHIE Hi, Emma.

- EMMA Oh, hi Sophie. I'm glad I've seen you. I've got some amazing news! Annette is going to buy an island!
S No! How can you buy an island?
E Well, people sell them, just like anything else. It's a bit like buying a house.
S Oh, really? Where is it? And what's she going to do with it?
E It's somewhere in Canada, and I think she's going to build a holiday home there for her family.
S So she's not going to live there all the time?
E Oh, no! There's nothing there, really; just a small wood in the middle.
S It sounds a bit boring. She should buy one somewhere warmer. One with nice beaches.
E Well, for one thing, an island like that is probably much more expensive! But I don't think she's interested in that sort of thing anyway. She loves the countryside, and the scenery there is really beautiful. She showed me some photos. When you look across the water from the island, you can see mountains and waterfalls.
S How lovely! And how do you get to the island?
E Well, at the moment, there's a man who takes them over there in his boat, but they're going to buy their own boat. Then they can come and go when they want to.
S So, how much time are they going to spend there?
E As much as possible, I think, but first they have to build the house! That will take at least a year. And Annette's children have to be at school during term time.
S What are they going to do with the house when they're not there?
E I don't really know, but she said I can borrow it if I want to.
S Wow, that's fantastic! You should do that!
E Don't worry – I'm not going to miss a fantastic offer like that!

Corpus

Development of this publication has made use of the Cambridge English Corpus (CEC). The CEC is a computer database of contemporary spoken and written English, which currently stands at over one billion words. It includes British English, American English and other varieties of English. It also includes the Cambridge Learner Corpus, developed in collaboration with the University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations. Cambridge University Press has built up the CEC to provide evidence about language use that helps us to produce better language teaching materials.

English Profile

This product is informed by English Vocabulary Profile, built as part of English Profile, a collaborative programme designed to enhance the learning, teaching and assessment of English worldwide. Its main funding partners are Cambridge University Press and Cambridge Assessment English and its aim is to create a 'profile' for English, linked to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). English Profile outcomes, such as the English Vocabulary Profile, will provide detailed information about the language that learners can be expected to demonstrate at each CEFR level, offering a clear benchmark for learners' proficiency. For more information, please visit www.englishprofile.org.

CALD

The Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary is the world's most widely used dictionary for learners of English. Including all the words and phrases that learners are likely to come across, it also has easy-to-understand definitions and example sentences to show how the word is used in context. The Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary is available online at dictionary.cambridge.org.
